• Textbook:
  1. Categorical Data Analysis by Alan Agresti (required)
  2. Analysis of Categorical Data with R by Christopher R. Bilder and Thomas M. Loughin (2014, Strongly recommended)
  3. An Introduction to Categorical Data Analysis by Alan Agresti (recommended)
  4. An Introduction to R by Phil Spector (recommended)

• Exams: There will be one midterm examination and one final examination. These will contribute the majority of your final grade. The midterm exam will cover contingency tables. The final examination will be held during the final exam week, and covers the entire course with an emphasis on the latter part of the course. Each examination will have both mathematical and conceptual (written) components.

• Home Work: Homework will be given on a biweekly basis. Regularly homework is due every other Wed, or otherwise the date announced. Some will be of a theoretical basis, and some will be real data analysis. Data analysis should be used R, or Splus, or Matlab, or SAS. If you missed the class, you can ask/copy the assignment.

• Quiz and Attendance: There may be one or two quizzes in class. You are expected to attend almost all classes. Poor attendance will significantly affect your final grade.

• Final Grade: Your final grade will depend on the following components with these proportions: homework (30%), midterm (20%), final exam (50%). Last, poor attendance of the class will be taken into account for you final grade. The percentage grades needed to achieve an A, B, C, or D will follow approximately the following scale: 90 − 100 = A, 80 − 89 = B, 70 − 79 = C, 55 − 69 = D, 0 − 54 = F.
• Academic Integrity I personally support the GW Code of Academic Integrity. It states: “Academic dishonesty is defined as cheating of any kind, including misrepresenting one’s own work, taking credit for the work of others without crediting them and without appropriate authorization, and the fabrication of information. For the remainder of the code, see: http://www.gwu.edu/integrity/code.html

• Support for Students Outside the Classroom Disability Support Services (DSS). Contact the Disability Support Services office at 202-994-8250 in the Marvin Center, Suite 242. For additional information please refer to: http://gwired.gwu.edu/dss/

The University Counseling Center (UCC) (202-994-5300) offers 24/7 assistance and referral to address students’ personal, social, career, and study skills problems.
